

Appendix A: Staff Questions Regarding Farm Labor Housing Application Process

- 1) How long have you been involved in reviewing Farm Labor Housing applications?
  - What specifically is your role?
- 2) In your experience, what have been the biggest challenges for applicants when trying to compile a complete FLH application?
- 3) From a reviewer's point of view, what have you found to be the most frustrating or challenging about the application process?
- 4) In the applications that you've reviewed, how frequently did applicants need to resubmit information and what were the items that needed to be resubmitted?
- 5) Do applications often need to go to the Agriculture Committee or Planning Commission more than once, and if so, why?
- 6) Do you think that all Departments/Divisions involved in the FLH review process understand the full process and the reasons for it?
- 7) Is there enough coordination between all the Departments/Divisions involved in the process?
- 8) Do you think the attached FLH informational material is helpful?
  - Does it accurately reflect the level of detail applicants need when submitting a FLH application?
- 9) Do you think County staff is helpful to applicants during the FLH application process?
- 10) What, if anything, do you think the County can do to improve the FLH application process?
- 11) Do you have any additional comments you'd like to add or topics you'd like to discuss that we haven't covered?